

Activating archives: a comparative transnational history

Work package n.2

This project has received funding from the European Union Horizon 2023 research and innovating programme under the Marie Skłodowska-Curie grant agreement No 101182859.

Goal

The aim of the WP is to provide a space for discussion and exchange for all partners in order to contribute to a transnational comparative history of relations between social and political activists, archivists and researchers in order to examine challenges in light of the past and present.

Themes

Four cross-cutting themes have been selected to examine this and will structure the hybrid seminars and scientific activities that will take place over the next four years :

- Progressive and conservative revolutionary movements
- Feminist movements
- Environmental struggles
- Social and political solidarity with extra-European causes.

Resources:

Secondments, publications, seminars, podcasts.

Led by:

Caroline Moine (Université de Versailles Saint-Quentin-en-Yvelines - UVSQ) and Eric de Rujiter (International Institute of Social History - IISH)

This project has received funding from the European Union Horizon 2023 research and innovating programme under the Marie Skłodowska-Curie grant agreement No 101182859.